

Lines indicate two kinds of dependence: thick lines major dependences and thin lines less relevant dependences. A distinction between individual dependence (from scholar to scholar) and general dependence (from a (boxed) School, Movement or Topical Area to some individual -- or vice-versa) is also considered. Names are reorganized in a (roughly) top-down way according to Authors's birth-date.